William V. Lahmann, Superintendent

Student of the Month – May 2009

Attitude is a little thing that makes a big difference. ~Winston Churchill

Attitudes are contagious. Attitudes affect everything that we attempt. Success is measured more by your attitude than your deeds. Though there were many times in this nominee's High School Career, bouncing from Capital to Orla to Avanti, where she could have packed it in and gave up, she certainly did not. She takes criticism and suggestions well, she is willing to review and redo previous learning to prepare her for current and future Learning Plans. She is an asset in class for those that have misunderstands or even just to bring a positive attitude which bleeds over to others. Quiet, reserved, confident are words that describe her. Without reservations, the Mathematics Department nominates Amber Burkman for Student of the Month.
